OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES, IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. C. S. dated 27th October 1932.

In accordance with the resolutions passed at the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conferences of 1929 and 1931, necessary action has been taken for the construction of a Co-operators' Home at Mysore. A beautiful site in a central place has been granted by the Government. The plans and estimates of the proposed building have been got ready. It is estimated that the total cost of the building would come to Rs. 60,000, the major portion of which will have to be met by donations from all the Societies in the State. The Home at Mysore will serve as a centre of Co-operative propaganda and activity in the capital City, and there will also be a Co-operative Library and Reading Room attached to it, in addition to accommodating the delegates to the Conference during the Dasara season. As the object of the Home is very laudable, in the noble cause of Co-operation, the Managing Committees of all the Societies in the State are requested to subscribe liberally to the Co-operators, Home Fund. The contributions may be paid out of the profits and, if necessary. penal interest, common good fund, charity fund, etc., may be utilised for making the contribution. The contribution may, if necessary, be arranged to be paid out of the profits, etc., of the years 1931-32 and 1932-33, if they cannot be paid in one lumpsum, the amounts being remitted to the Apex Bank to the credit of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Co-operators' Home Account.
